

April Kelly-Woessner, On Whether Millennials Are Tolerant

1. In handling intolerant or offensive speech, how is the New Left approach different from the classical liberal approach?

2. In April Kelly-Woessner's analysis of data from the General Social Survey, she finds that people who are least confident of their own civic skills are also the most intolerant of speakers they find offensive. How does she use the concept of trade protectionism to explain this finding?