

Richard Nisbett, interviewed by Hunter Maats on Mixed Mental Arts

1. What does Richard Nisbett mean in saying that if you stay out of the wrong bars and bedrooms, you're safer in the American South than the North? How does this statement connect to Nisbett's larger point about the characteristics of honor cultures?