Midterm Exam Study Guide
JSIS B 312 A – GWSS 390 D – CLIT 250 B
Autumn Quarter 2021

Take-Home Midterm Exam:

will be available to take on Canvas on 10.28.21 between 6:00 AM – 11:59 PM

The material you should review for your take-home midterm exam includes the following:

3. OCT 7 The commodification of wo/men in the marriage market

•Jane Austen, Pride and Prejudice (New York: Open Road Integrated Media, Inc., 2016). Chapters 1-20.

•Jones 2009: 7-41 (Canvas)

•Green 1991: 69-79 (Canvas)

•Power-point presentation

4. OCT 12 Fortune, class, family: real and symbolic commodities in the English marriage market (i)

•Jane Austen, Pride and Prejudice (New York: Open Road Integrated Media, Inc., 2016): Chapters 21-40.

•Power-point presentation

5. OCT 14 Fortune, class, family: real and symbolic commodities in the English marriage market (ii)

•Michie 2011: 1-25 and 26-40 (Canvas)

•Power-point presentation

6. OCT 19 Women's virtue and beauty: symbolic commodities in the English marriage market

•Jane Austen, Pride and Prejudice (New York, NY: Open Road Integrated Media, Inc., 2016). Chapters 41-52.

•Power-point presentation

7. OCT 21 The courtship novel: from the marriage bargain to the companionate marriage

Jane Austen, Pride and Prejudice (New York, NY: Open Road Integrated Media, Inc., 2016). Chapters 53-61.

•Green 1991: 153-160 (Canvas)

•Boone 1987: 1-20 (Canvas)

•Power-point presentation

In reviewing for your midterm exam, please take into account the following points:

a. Focus on the major themes and ideas discussed in the articles or book chapters assigned.

b. Focus on important terms which were repeatedly discussed in the class and which appear in the readings you will study for the midterm.

c. You don't have to memorize specific dates or years but you need to be able to place the events or facts discussed in the readings against specific periods. For example, early nineteenth century or late eighteenth century.

d. The midterm will comprise the following three types of questions:
1. Questions requiring a short response answer (about 1-2 paragraphs)
2. Questions requiring the definition of specific terms
3. Questions requiring a longer answer (about 2-3 pages long)
4. Multiple choice questions

GOOD LUCK WITH YOUR REVIEW!